Game Openings!!!

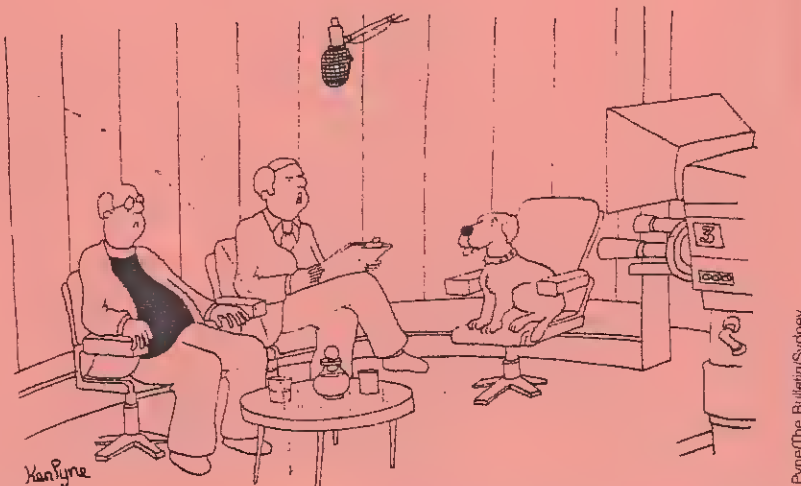

I will be starting up another reg. dip game. This time, however, if you wish to play, you must bid for a spot in the game in the current PDO Relief Auction. The lot # is 0-1 and the minimum bid is $3. See the next page for more details.....

Final Conflict -- I've decided, after playing it at MaryCon, to run a game of Final Conflict. This is a 7 player game. I'd like to have people who will stick with it. The game fee is the standard $3. Once I get the game filled, it'll start.....Anyone interested?

MaryCon 84

Once again MaryCon was a very nice Dip con. I absolutely love the Mary Washington College Campus. It's a very relaxing and tranquil place until of course you wander into the building where the Dip tourney's held. I did nowhere near as well this year as I did last but I still had fun. (as much fun as one can have with having to deal with a hacking cough all weekend)

The winner this year was a guy named Lincoln. (didn't get his first name) I was amazed at all the high center counts this year...17 center, 14 center, 19 center, 21 center! and on and on....There were more than usual to say the least. I'm looking forward to next year's and hope it's even bigger and better,

THE PEOPLE'S DIPLOMACY ORGANIZATION'S

RELIEF AUCTION, SPRING '84 CATALOGUE,

81 LOTS TO HELP THE CUSTODIANS OF DIPDOM.

RUN BY THE PDORA OF THE PDO'S ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE, RETIREMENTS, ELECTIONS AND TREASURY SERVICE.

1. There are 81 separate lots up for auction in the Spring 1984, ranging from games and zines to pictures and even a weekend vacation!
2. All proceeds from the PDORA Spring '84 go to help the custodians of Dipdom, like the BNC, MNC. The PDORA is a non-profit affair.
3. All PUBLISHERS. Please plug the availability of this auction catalogue in the very next issue of your zine and as long as it is relevant and not out-of-date.
4. People sending a SASE can receive a copy of this catalogue by writing to: Michael Mills, GK, PDORA, 26 Laurel Road, Sloatsburg, NY 10974, USA.
5. Publishers may, if they choose, simply reprint the entire catalogue in their zines.
6. Input on how and to what custodians the PDORA funds should be distributed is actively sought.

7. To register a bid you must send a letter to the address, stating what lot and how much your bid is, e.g. LOT M-6, $10.00.
8. You may not make your bids conditional upon other bids or factors. However, you may ask that your total of winning bids not exceed a certain amount of money, i.e. you bid on $60.00 worth of stuff, but ask that your successful bids not exceed $40.00. In this case you must list your bids in order of preference.
9. Lots saying "Minimum bid is $X.XX" will not be awarded unless the high bid is equal to or greater than the amount stated. (Don't bother bidding below that amount.)
10. Lots with "Est=$X.XX" will not be awarded unless the high bid is very near or greater than the stated amount.
11. Lots without either mentions in #10 or #1 above, go to the high bidder.

12. All lots are postpaid by the donor, EXCEPT THOSE SAYING "BIDDER PAYS POSTAGE." In which case, the high bidders picks up the tab. When your lot reaches your house, you must send to the donor the money to cover his postage as shown on the package.
13. When the bidding closes, the GK will award lots and notify the bidders of what they've won. When bidders have sent in their monies, the GK will then notify the donors to which bidders they should send their donated lots. Failure to claim a lot you've won in a reasonable amount of time will bar you from further auctions unless cause is duly shown. The lot will also be awarded to the second highest bidder.

FOOT IN MOUTH

Issue #12

May 15, 1984

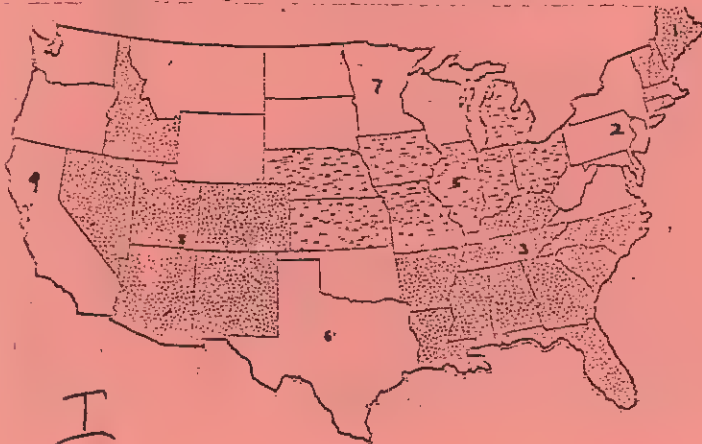

Greetings and welcome to another fun-filled issue of FIM, brought to you by me, John Caruso 160-02 43Ave Flushing, NY. 11358. If you care to call me, for what reason is beyond me, my phone number is 212 353-9695, but expect to get the Tom Mainardi treatment.

Speaking of Tom Mainardi, this FIM is brought to you in Bersaglieri, discourtesy of Tom "Fast Fingers" Mainardi. I figured I'd add a little class to this otherwise, very boring and mediocre zine. I guess that's like Reggie Jackson joining the Cleveland Indians- they wouldn't win many more games, but they sure as hell would attract attention.

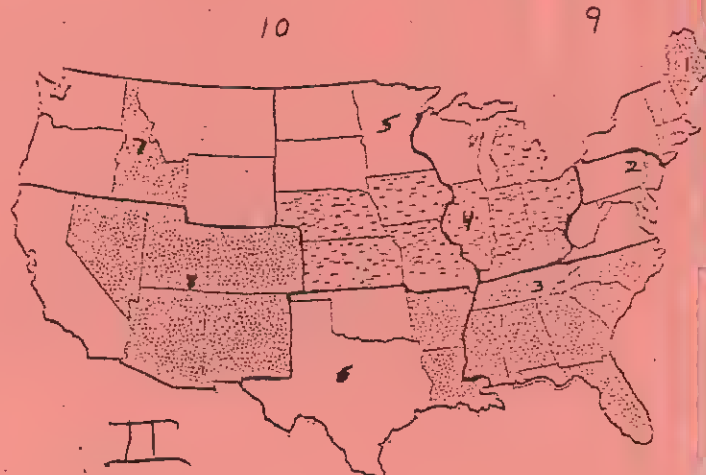

Speaking of attention, last issue of Bersag returned to the good old days, what with hairy "B's" and the celebrity page, and insults directed towards all the big guns from out west and near east, Tom really is out doing himself. If he doesn't watch out, he may even gain respectability.

While on the subject of respectability, I may as well comment on the PDO. I was instructed by the Grand Kommisar to realign the boundaries of the PDO zones, due to inconsistencies. I was also instructed to seek the help of, not less than 1 and not more than 3 others to help me in this endeavour. Therefore, I selected Tom Mainardi, Mark Larzelere and Phyllis Byrne to aid me in my task. The 3 of us have since finished our task. Below are 2 maps. The one on the left was the original zones as designed, pre-Caruso Commison Task Force Recommendation. Notice how zone 4 had no boundaries. Map 2, the one on the right has noticeably corrected that fault, and attempted to correct some of the other zoning irregularities. Plus there is now a new zone- Lucky 13.

- Zone 1: NY, Vt, Ct, Ma, RI, NH, Me
- Zone 2: Pa, NJ, Md, De, WV, Va, DC
- Zone 3: Tn, NC, SC, Ga, AL, Ms, FL, PR, VI
- Zone 4: WI, MI, IL, IN, OH, KY
- Zone 5: ND, SD, Mn, Ne, Ia, Ks, Mo
- Zone 6: Ok, Tx, Ar, La
- Zone 7: Wa, Or, Id, Mt, Ak, WY
- Zone 8: Nv, Ut, Co, Az, NM, Ca, Hi, Guam, AM Samoa, Trust Terr
- Zone 9: Canada- Ont and east
- Zone 10: Canada- West of Ont
- Zone 11: Britain and all colonies and possessions.
- Zone 12: Mainland Europe
- Zone 13: Rest of the world

QUOTE OF THE MONTH: Mark Fassio.- "If it ain't broke, break it!"

Again, I wish to thank Tom, Mark and Phyllis for the unprecedented assistance they gave to me in resolving this major PDO Flaw.

It looks like all is go for the upcoming PDO elections.

Don't forget the 2nd PDO relief auction for the hobby services. The deadline for submitting a bid for an item is July 7. If you don't have a booklet for available items, write to me, Mike Mills or Tom Mainardi.

Hmm, I read something last issue about getting older and how I feel about it. Personally, I don't feel like I'm getting older- just ask Kathy- I'm getting better. I guess I can't do everything I used to do when I was younger- wait- let me say I can't do it as well. I still play ball, run, etc, and can compete. My intensity level isn't as high as it was when I was 20, but there is still drive and pride to do well. 10 years ago, I thought that 34 was over the hill. Now I'm at 34 and I can still compete competitively with the younger guys. I don't have all the physical tools I used to have, but most of it can be made up for with intelligence and experience. 10 years ago, if I saw a 30+ guy playing ball, it was rare. Nowadays, its not rare. People think of 30+ guys as being fat, TV chair bound, or out of shape. You'd be surprised to find out, like I did, that the 30+ crowd participates as much if not moreso than the younger people. Granted, I have limitations- I can't go all day long like I used to, and if I do get hurt, it takes longer to heal, but I get as much enjoyment out of sports now as I did when I was 20, if not moreso, plus I get more out of it in the way of exercise.

I do find myself reading more than I did a few years ago. Might have to do with Dipdom, or just gaming in general. I don't spend as many hours per day/week involved in sports and therefore occupy it with mail, and reading my own special interest topic- history. I am no history buff, but do get some satisfaction at reading of mans past.

And in between reading and sports, there is Kathy and the kids, plus pubbing- I'd say I'm in my prime, not "old", "aged" or "over-the-hill". But if Woody is any example of what I'm going to be like 10 years from now, I never want to reach 44.

The convention season is almost upon us. I wonder who is going to win the GOP nomination? Could be a close dogfight. In the other column, the Dems have a dogfight of their own- between Fido, Rover and Killer. I wonder who is going to win, and whether it'll be a 1st round win, or a shaky, under the table, sneaky sell-out deal. 2 candidates can get together and "torpedo" the other candidates, and thats called politics.

As I type this, the Stanley Cup is tied at 1 apiece and they are getting ready for game 3 in Edmonton. Not that it matters where they play- its just what game number they want to hand the Stanley Cup(#5 in a row) to the Islanders. After Saturdays trouncing, it may not go the 6 games I previously predicted. It may all end in Edmonton.

In baseball, the 1st place Mets just finished up a weekend of 2-1 vs the 1st place Dodgers. Bring on the Giants and Padres, we'll beat 'em all. This is the year of the Mets. They even got rid of "Deadwood" Tidrow and Swan before they ruined the kids enthusiasm or lost too many for them to overcome. Now if only somebody will take 0-3 Torres, we may come in 1st for real.

In basketball, the Knicks and Nets both died in the semis. Oh well, they at least gave a good account of themselves, especially the Knicks who took the Celtics the route to 7 games before folding. Celtics will probably go all the way, tho that'll be no consolation to the Knicks, I'm sure. Way to go guys. At least we killed the 76ers, those "FatCats".

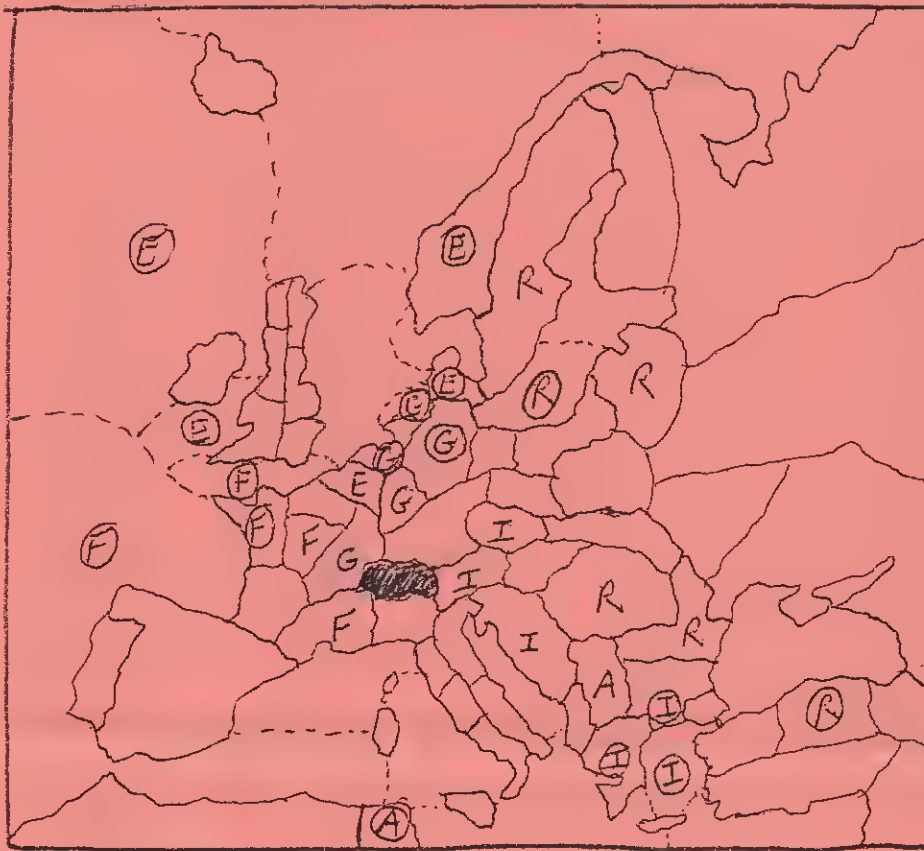

Guess I'll end this here, before Tom gets mad and bangs his fist on the table again. Take care and have fun.....

Lpl-Bre: Well, what's the scoop? I had to defend my coastal waters, but as you can see, you are not my enemy. What say you put some of those fleets down south where they belong? You wouldn't actually want to see Woodhead doing well!

Happy Laker Fan-Worried Buck Fan: You're on! $10 chump!

FTun-F Ion: Woody -- Noooooooooooo!!!

Ger-Rus: I think I can hold him at bay one turn.

Edi-StP: Well, how much am I going to regret these moves?

Don-Tom: Tell me something, Have the Detroit Tigers been taking lessons from Kathy Byrne? 30 and 5...sheesh...actually, I think the Detroit team was traded to Boston, and the Red Sox are playing in Detroit's colors -- think about it, it would help explain alot!

Tom-Don: Sorry, Don, I don't really know alot about all that hockey -- I mean baseball -- stuff.

Austria-Germany: A bayonet? This gives a whole new meaning to "Up yours!"

Lon-Kie: Well, how much am I going to regret these moves?

Roach-Hamster: Gee, thanks for saying I'm not like Marc Peters, Woody. Coming from a winner like you, that means a lot.

Austria-Russia: Come back here. Do you want Woody to win?

Eng-Aus: Your position may look small, but take comfort in knowing that one can serve no greater cause in Dip than being a real thorn in the side of Woody.

Don-Pat: Sorry, but it ain't in the cards, kid. How is it you keep coming Austria-GM: Now don't you wish you lived in the South?

GM-Austria: Oh, but I do live in the South....I live in southern Pennsylvania!

Eng-Ger: Not only is there a bayonet up your nose, but there is a knife in your back...and your fly is open. God, are you a social misfit! I'll bet nobody can take you anywhere in public.

Russia-Germany: Cutski with the har-hars, Herr Craig. We Russians have a very low threshold for pain. A bayonet up your nose indeed! I just can't take you anywhere, can I?

Austria-France: Leave Woody alone or you'll face the vaunted red fleet!

Eng-Ita: Wrong "Mark", Woody. Frueh is the one that gets the pseudo-sexual thrill out of stabbing. Me, I just do it because it's there. By the way, why not tell Austria how good you are about not stabbing? Or Turkey, maybe?

Russia-England: Well, I can't say the crisis is over (especially if you slipped and accidentally "fell" into StP), but I've pulled back like I said. See, you sometimes can trust a Russian!

Eng-Ger: Well, Russia and I decided since it was so obvious that we were having a war, we'd call it off. (At least I called off my half!) As for keeping you out of it, that all depends on what Willie Boy decides to do.

Don-Rick: You sure do fake it well.

Another old time you'd like to forget-Tom: Two years ago, with that heavy friend of your sister's...yeah, that one. "Disgusting, but intense," was the way you put it, I believe. You shouldn't talk in your sleep, Tom, especially into the phone.

Tom-Don: Are you feeling well? I believe you must be having some sort of dillusion....

Russia: And now, direct from Russia, the Bolshoi Barbershop Quartet--

Warsaw- "Roses are Red"

Moscow- "Violets are Blue"

StPete- "I'm a Schizophrenic"

Sevast- "...and so am I."

Russia-Game: Just wanted you all to know, I sent orders last time, I really did. I don't know where they went, but you can be sure Dick Martin is behind it...or maybe John Caruso, or Bob Olsen.....

from Tom Swider

Dear Tom, Hope you enjoyed your trip to the World's Fair. Some day I hope to go and see such an event.

Right, as I said, Reagan hasn't dealt with the gender gap problem very effectively. The crux of the feminist argument is that the EEOA is not being enforced as actively as one would hope. The procedures for bringing a discrimination suit is very bureaucratic, so cases are backlogged. This discourages said suits from being brought up, and employers in a better position to discriminate.

Sarah O'Connor and your two bosses are just three success stories, as compared to the thousands of failures caused by sexual discrimination.

Personally, until equality is taught and practiced in our public schools, EEOA will be a law which won't be observed as it should.

Re school prayer: Wrongo Tom. The USA was a country for freedom and not religion. People came here so that they could follow alternate theologies, notably all of the "heretical" offsprings inspired by Martin Luther. I am sure a child can find time in school to sneak in a prayer. Why should we have to go through all the formalities?

As for abortion; our church is against it. But isn't that decision up to the mother? Of course, the mother should pay for the operation, and not the state.

Oh, Carl (or should I say 'Carla') has found true happiness. At WoodCon, Carl was jealous in that he wasn't as developed as the reporter on "Talk Dirty to Me II", so he recently had the operation. To date, Carla hasn't been herself...I bet Peery talked her into this. On the bright side, Carla made her own movie which premiered here in Bingo. Here's some proof for your Celebrity Page.

10 All the Best,
Tom

((Tom, are you a feminist? I don't know what Reagan, or for that matter anyone in a "leading position" is supposed to do --- make have of the 'decision makers' women just to have it that way. I think that someone should get a position, whether it be in government or private industry, on the basis of ability and not just to "fill quotas" or to make things "look even". A prime example of that is all the talk about having a woman running-mate for Mondale. I haven't heard any suggestions as to who,,, and what her abilities and experience s are. As for bureaucracy and backlogs... You show me any government agency or organization that has to deal with the public directly that does not have a backlog...be it Fed, state, or local. I work for SSA, and if the general public saw how inefficient and antiquated the system is, they'd be an outcry. It took me 5 months to get a simple novelty license plate from the PA Dept. of Trans. So don't go crying backlogs and reluctance... just for EEOA.

The Pilgrims came here for freedom Tom--primarily religious freedom. I'm not saying that no other religions but the Christian ones are allowed. What I am saying is that this country was built with the spirit and ethics of the Christian faith. Look around you Tom. It's everywhere to be found....You can't just lock it out of the schools and say once you cross that doorway of the school you can't think, read, write or talk about God or anything religious....It's impossible and unnatural. As to abortion--Nearly every church is against it. It is wrong and it's murder. If that little "fetus" is not a person then how did any of us get here? We were all like that once and we're alive. Doesn't that little person deserve a chance to be a big person too?! I'm not going to get all scientific...there's no need to if you have common sense.... If getting wrinkled and shrivelled up is a sign of old age then that little curled up -- living person -- is the sign of young age continued....

As to it being the mother's body and her "decision" -- if you take the fact that it is a person which is inside the mother...and what else can it be, a water buffalo?...than to say that it's the mother's decision to have the abortion is like saying it's my decision to shoot you for stabbing me in Junta. Any reason that I've every heard for condoning abortion has been rationalization, an excuse -- sometimes a good one -- for not having the baby. But, no matter how good the excuse is, it is not grounds for taking away an innocent person's chance to live his or her life. There are thousands of people out there who would love to have a child but for one reason or another they can't have one. Instead of abortion clinics, there should be adoption clinics where pregnant woman who don't want their babies could be matched with people who do want her baby. It would stop legalized murder and create a happier country.....

I can't wait to see Carla in her new film. It's bound to be a smash!

'Til next time,
Tom))

from Matt Fleming

5-1-84,

Tom,

BERSAG #35 was absolutely excellent.

In addition to the usually well adjudicated games, this issues press was hilarious and the letters and ~~WETEXEXX~~ celebrity pages were great.

The games are going pretty well for me, one of these days my luck is going to run out in D WYOMING.

~~XXLXXEM~~ Swiders and Carl's letters are appreciated. Reagan isn't the best thing to come along, but he beats the hell out of Jimmy the Peanut.

Maybe Frueh will figure out who I am after he reads this seasons press for the Bourse, but then again MMK is rather dumb.

Looking forward to the contest about the B's toupee.

One thing did bother me though--shouldn't the quote on the top of the first page have been "Bobby Sacks' favorite zine." ?

Apparently quite a few of your subbers will be at Madcon II. Maybe we will annoy you with a # 3:30 am call--Woody didn't answer last time.

Best,

Matt

((Thanks, Matt, for those nice words of approval. I'd much rather have your kind of support -- a compliment every now and then like keep up the good work, thanks for pubbing, etc.-- than being first in every poll there is. I couldn't give a shit about any of the polls! I don't vote in them (except when badgered by Woody and Kathy) and I don't care about the results. I want to thank all the others who also give me encouragement now and then. Believe me, it's very appreciated! The "B" contest will be in next ish, promise. And if I do receive a call,...oh MadCon's over already isn't it? Still, no middle-of-the-night calls!

Best, Tom
